Joint Meeting:

Come and Meet the Metropolitan Region Director

6:00 – Informal Indoor Picnic

We will start our program year with the annual Joint Meeting, an event that brings our three groups together with time to socialize and get to know each other. The doors of Beverwyck will open at 6:00 for the indoor picnic. Bring your picnic dinner and, if possible, a dessert to share. Decaf coffee will be provided.

If you have a stitching project to show, finished or in process, please bring it along. We'll display them on a table during our meeting.

7:00 – Program

This year we are very excited to have the EGA Metropolitan Region Director, Marge Kelly, as our speaker. She will talk to us about what exactly goes on at the Region level and update us on current Region activities and opportunities. The evening will also give us the chance to talk with her and share our Chapter's interests and concerns. We hope as many members as possible will take this opportunity to meet with Marge.

Remember parking is limited so carpooling is encouraged.

Thursday, October 18, 2018 | Beverwyck Terrace | 7:00 – 8:30 PM

Raised Embroidery vs Stumpwork Lecture by Celeste Chalasani

In addition to the two-day Summer Serenade class, Celeste Chalasani will be presenting a talk about Stumpwork on Thursday, October 18. Celeste is a designer and teacher who specializes in Stumpwork. She first learned embroidery, sewing and crochet as a young child from her grandmother. Her passion for Stumpwork was sparked when she joined EGA in 1999. Celeste has taught extensively for EGA at chapter workshops, regional and national seminars and has also written an Individual Correspondence Course on Stumpwork.

The talk will start at 7:00 at the Beverwyck and is open to all members. We also encourage you to bring a friend. Don't miss this opportunity. No registration is required and there is no charge for the program.

The Summer Serenade class is now full but kits are available for purchase. More details can be found on page 5.

Letter from the President

Dear Members,

Summer is almost over and it's time to get serious about our stitching projects because, believe it or not, our "Artistry in Stitches" exhibit is nine short months away—May 16-19, 2019.

Other exciting events coming our way are the Joint Picnic Meeting on September 18, at which we will be joined by our Region Director, Marge Kelly. Marge will speak with us about the Metropolitan Region. In October, we will have the Celeste Chalasani stumpwork lecture and workshop. We have an opportunity to participate in the Metropolitan Region's next educational event, Delphiniums, which will be an online class with Merrilyn Heazlewood beginning on January 2, 2019. Registration is now open and closes on November 1, 2018. Our annual winter retreat will be held at the Carondelet Hospitality Center on the last weekend of January. The Metropolitan Region Seminar will be held April 5-7, 2019.

What I've mentioned are some of the highlights of the upcoming year. There are also so many more "routine" events: monthly chapter meetings, study group meetings, Studio Time sessions, and of particular significance to me, our monthly Mentoring program for the children who have participated in our summer Creative Stitches camp. Once again this year, the Creative Stitches camp was successfully run and seemed to be thoroughly enjoyed by both the students and teachers alike. Thanks so very much to everyone who helped to make this camp such an important and enjoyable opportunity for the children in our area.

I don't know how many of you are aware that we have several new or relatively new members in our chapter. If you see someone you're not familiar with, please introduce yourself and make her feel welcome. As we all know, it can be a bit daunting to enter a group of people whom you don't know and try to comfortably fit in. Conversely, if you are one of our new or newer members, please let us know who you are when attending a chapter meeting or event and I promise you, you'll be warmly and even enthusiastically welcomed into the group. I extend my welcome to each of you here until I have the opportunity to do so personally. And to all members who have been a part of our chapter for so many years, I welcome you back to our full-time schedule for the 2018-2019 year and look forward to catching up with you at our meetings and events.

"No spring nor summer's beauty hath such grace
As I have seen in one Autumnal face..."
~ John Donne, "Elegy IX: The Autumnal"

Warmest regards,
Sandie Feek

Summer Serenade with Celeste Chalasani

Fri-Sat, October 19-20, 2018

Kits Available

If you can't take the class but would really like to work on this project, Celeste has agreed to make additional kits available for $35. Kits include pattern, fabric and threads. You will also need 12 x 12 inch stretcher bars or an 8.5 inch hoop. Use the coupon on page 10 to place your order by September 6th.

Wait List

While Summer Serenade is now full it is not unusual for a spot or two to open up at the last minute. If you wish you could still get in, place your name on the Wait List by contacting Melody Brennan.

Stitching Prep for Class

During the Summer Serenade class we will work a variety of surface embroidery and dimensional stitches: Stem Stitch, Whipped Reverse Chain Stitch, Split Back Stitch, Running Stitch, Satin Stitch, Buttonhole Stitch, and French Knot. By the end of the second day, students will have practiced each stitch and technique enough to be confident to complete the project on their own. If you would like to review stitches before the class, check out instructions online, or ask the meeting leader for help at your next EGA meeting.

Creative Stitches 2018

On August 10th, Creative Stitches completed another successful week teaching children to stitch. Eleven 9 to 14 year olds attended; six were new to the program this year, the rest returning for their second through fourth year! During the week each group learned and reviewed stitches to complete at least three specially selected projects. By the end of the week students proudly displayed embellished cigar boxes, redwork, tote bags, penny rugs and more.

Thank you to all who made the week possible especially the teachers: *Maggie Oldendorf, Verna Chapman, *Sandie Feck, Linda Felice, *Natalie Hart Fryzer, Lynn Grey, Virginia Huerfeld, Donna Logan, *Ann McMillan, Helen O'Connor. Those marked with * planned and developed projects for our stitchers.

Thank you to Jean Brower, Christene Thurston, and Mary Willmott for providing delicious snacks that were greatly enjoyed by all, and to Donna Logan for her fine photography.

- Kathy Kuhrt, Education Committee Chair

Beginner students learned Redwork and stitched covers for cigar boxes.

Advanced students worked on penny rugs and tote bags with Kantha style stitching.

Intermediate students reviewed stitches and worked on tote bags.

CALL FOR VOLUNTEERS – Creative Stitches Mentoring Program

The 2018 Creative Stitches was very successful, and the students are excited about the opportunity to continue their efforts throughout the year. Eleven children participated; six were new to the program, and the remaining five children were there for the second, third, and fourth year!!

Once again, (our fourth year) we are offering our “mentoring children in the art of embroidery program” for the months of September 2018 through May 2019. The sessions will continue to be held on the second Saturday of every month in the Board Room at the Bethlehem Public Library from 1-3:00 PM. Unlike the summer program where we prepare lessons and kit projects, mentoring sessions are stitch-ins; students and mentors take their own projects on which to work and to show. The energy and creativity is wonderful to see.

Would you be willing to serve as a mentor? A “pool” of mentors will be established from which to draw on a specific date. You would not be asked to attend every session (unless, of course, you would like to), but might be asked to attend more than once. Our needs will be determined each month by the number of students who indicate they will be at that month’s session. If you are able to help us, please let me know. Please also let me know if there are any dates you would prefer to be asked, or if you wish, which dates you would not be available. We have given the girls a deadline of one week prior to each date for letting us know if they plan to attend so that we will know how many mentors to line up each month.

Thank you so much for considering this request. Our chapter is making great strides furthering appreciation of and interest in needle arts, not only for our peers, but for the next generation. Feel free to stop in to see what is happening at any of our mentoring sessions.

If you are able to help with this program, or if you have any questions regarding the program, please contact Sandie Feck.

June Retreats

We have just completed our 2018 Retreat at Ararat and it was, as always, terrific. For the first time, we offered a four-day retreat as well as the usual three-day weekend, and the members who participated agreed that it was extremely productive to have that extra day.

So, in 2019, we are again offering the four-day as well as the three-day weekend. I know it seems a little early to be planning, but if we don't reserve the facility a year in advance we probably won't get the space. And after our 2019 exhibit in May, we will all be ready for a relaxing stitching vacation. The retreat will run June 6-9, 2019, which is the weekend before Father's Day, so there won't be conflicts.

Save the Date!

The pricing for 2019 will be the same as for 2018 (see the Summer 2018 newsletter). Full details, pricing and the registration coupon will be in the Spring 2019 newsletter. If any of you have questions or concerns, feel free to contact me and I'll be glad to assist.

2019 Region Education Event

Region Online Class: Delphiniums with Merrilyn Heazlewood

Learn Ribbon Embroidery and more with the next online class from the Metropolitan Region. Take advantage of this class with an internationally renowned designer and teacher. Work together with other chapter members for support.

Delphiniums is a 5½ inch square intermediate Counted Canvas design with silk ribbon embroidery. In addition, more than 10 needlepoint stitches are incorporated into the design, including flower, rice, upright cross, long armed cross, cross, French knots and lazy daisy. The design is stitched on 18 count canvas and uses perle #5, wool, silk ribbon and beads.

Registration is open until November 1 and the class begins on January 2, 2019. The Metropolitan Region is subsidizing part of the cost of this class. Registration fee is $50 and includes pattern and instructions. Once you register a supply list will be sent for participants to purchase independently. For more details and the registration form, go to: www.metroega.org/events/education-2019

2019 Winter Retreat

Our winter retreat will be held January 25, 26 and 27, 2019 at the St. Joseph Carondelet Hospitality Center in Latham, NY, from 10:00 AM on Friday to 4:00 PM on Sunday. Again, one will be able to come for the whole weekend or choose to be a day tripper for one, two or all three days. There will also be two options for day trippers on Friday and Saturday. Option #1: for people who want to come for the day but do not want to stay for the evening meal and evening stitching. Option #2: for people who want to come for day and evening stitching and take part in the noon AND evening meals.

As some of you may have heard, Carondelet has sold some of their property to St. Peters Hospital. The sleeping rooms will be the same as in past years but we will have a different stitching room. This year the stitching room will be in the area where we held our 2017 Exhibit. We will have the same large round tables and comfortable padded chairs. There is a comfortable lounge area and kitchen with microwave and refrigerator just outside the room where we will be stitching. This room, also, has great lighting!

As in past years, whether you are a day tripper or a weekender, we will be able to set-up our stitching stations and leave them in place overnight in a secured area.

RATES

Weekender – $250.00

- Includes three full days of stitching; dinner on Friday; breakfast, dinner and supper Saturday and breakfast and noon dinner on Sunday.

Friday Noon Meal – $13.00

- This fee is for weekenders only who would like to partake in the noon meal on Friday.

Day Trippers

The winter retreat is a wonderful opportunity for members to get together to stitch and share our love for stitching in a warm, welcoming atmosphere during the cold winter months. If you have any questions or concerns, feel free to contact me.
