Creative Stitches: Teaching Children to Stitch

CREATIVE STITCHES 2019 will be held at the Bethlehem Public Library, Monday through Friday, August 5-9 from 9:30 AM to noon. This program is in its 38th year, and serves children nine and up. We expect 15 to 20 new and returning stitchers each year. Please consider helping with this important program! We can always use more hands and encourage you to sign up to be a teacher and/or contribute food.

Be A Teacher: All members are welcome regardless of experience teaching children. This is a wonderful opportunity to share your love of needlework with students who are just beginning to learn about the world of stitching. We work as a team on projects already planned by lead teachers: Sandie Feck, Natalie Hart and Maggie Oldendorf. Sign up for as many days as you can.

Contribute Food: Provide snacks for 25 to 30 students and teachers for one day, Monday through Thursday.

Attend One Teacher Meeting - Date to be determined. See the projects, learn what is expected, and help put together project kits.

We will provide plenty of information and support. For more information or to sign up, contact Kathy Kuhrt.

Letter from the President

Hello Everyone,

I'm writing this letter the week before Artistry in Stitches, anticipating the event and all the beautiful work which will be on display. Of course, the time and energy devoted to preparing for our exhibit, as well as the actual work which will be needed to make it a success are very much on my mind at the moment. But I have to refer to the exhibit as though it has already taken place because this newsletter will be sent to everyone the week after the exhibit, at which time we will be basking in the knowledge that Artistry in Stitches 2019 was a rousing success due to the preparations, hard work, dedication to detail, and support of our members. So, between now and then, (or should that be then and now?) I'm confident that all will be accomplished when and where needed, and because it would be most appropriate to do so, I thank each of you (in advance or retrospectively) for allowing us to display your beautiful work as well as your help in making our exhibit so memorable, and our chapter such a vibrant, successful, enjoyable group of extremely talented and dedicated members. Kudos to all!

I think I am not alone in anticipating a few leisurely weeks of summer in which to relax and regroup before our next big event — Creative Stitches Summer Camp. This year's camp will be held August 5–9 at the Bethlehem Public Library and, as usual, we will be needing lots of help. Please watch for announcements about what needs to be done to ensure the success of this year's class, and please do lend a hand, whether it's preparing for the camp, working hands-on with the girls during that week, or baking/supplying the daily snacks served to the participants. Contact Kathy Kuhrt if you are willing and able to lend a hand.

Remember: The North End meetings are suspended during the months of July and August. The Day Group meetings are suspended during the months of June, July, and August. The Beverwyck Group does continue its meetings, though — the first and third Tuesday of each month from 7–9:00 PM. I hope to see you there.

Warmest regards,

Sandie Feck

Ruth is a seamstress and needlework finisher. She lives in the area and has beautifully finished many of our member's stitched work into pillows, ornaments, carry bags and more. Come to see examples of her work and get ideas and tips to use for sewn finishes. Whether you are running out of wall space, looking for alternative finishing ideas or just interested in an evening out with fellow stitchers, you will enjoy this meeting.

Exhibit Update

ARTISTRY IN STITCHES 2019 was our most successful exhibit to date. Preliminary estimates show a significant increase in attendance and revenue. Of special note, we had a lot of interest in joining our chapter. Three signed up during the exhibit and several more are expected to follow suit. Those are the best signs of success.

Special thanks to all who worked tirelessly behind the scenes in preparation for the exhibit. Lynne Priestley and her team managed the registration process with Diane Madrigal (on-line registration and technical help) and Nancy Knowles (exhibit program layout). The display committee, Ann McMillan, Agnes Bohl and Melody Brennan planned the display process. All those 350 pieces were carefully hung or placed by Ann and Agnes, Verna Chapman (memorials), Ann Cohan, Sandie Feck, Linda Freedland, Virginia Huerfeld and Donna Logan. Maggie Oldendorf guided the Needlework Closet pre-work. Over many long days, Maggie, Verna Chapman, Sandie Feck, Lu Ann Scherer, Carol Newhart and Fran Roscello sorted and priced a huge assortment of needlework treasures. Thanks also to Helen O'Connor for allowing us to store and work on those boxes of donated treasure in her home.

No less important was the work done by Nancy Knowles on publicity, Mary Willmott for organizing the Preview Party (with great food and music from Pinebush Players), Jane Stevens coordinating hostesses and demos, and Terry Case managing intake of all exhibited items and their return.

Thank you to all volunteers, stitchers and supporters of this event.

— Kathy Kuhrt and Nancy Knowles, Exhibit Co-chairs

GROUP CORRESPONDENCE COURSE

Maharajah's Elephant with Mary Long

Beginning in September, we will be stitching the Maharajah's Elephant, one of EGA's Group Correspondence Courses (GCC). This looks like a really fun canvas piece, with lots of different stitches including tent, rice, eyelet, swirl, alternating Scotch, mosaic, Rhodes, satin, and brick.

We will be applying for the Region Grant, which will cover the cost of the registration fee. You will need to pay a $40 text fee and you must supply your own materials.

Visit the EGA's National website at <https://egausa.org/courses/maharajahs-elephant/> to learn more about this project and see the supply list. Use the link at the bottom of that page to find more information about the Group Correspondence Course program and other available projects.

Monthly group sessions will be set up to accommodate participants. Registration deadline is June 14, 2019. Please email Ginger Iorizzo if you are interested.

Costs include all meals and meal gratuities though housekeeping gratuities are up to the individual. See the coupon on page 10 for pricing details.

Meals for the four-day option starts with dinner on Thursday and includes all meals for the rest of the weekend. The meals for the three-day option start with dinner on Friday. Hemmers Needed

Peebles Island Resource Center, home of the Bureau of Historic Sites, has reached out to our chapter for help with a very special project. They plan to replace the curtains and valances in the dining room of the Ogden Mills Mansion at the Staatsburgh Historic Site, near Poughkeepsie, NY. They would like two to four volunteer stitchers to come to Peebles Island on Tuesdays, Wednesdays and possibly Thursdays, from 9 AM to 3 PM (hours can be flexible) to hem.

Our chapter has a long history of volunteering at Peebles Island. This should be an interesting and worthwhile opportunity for members to share their time and talents. The Ogden Mills Mansion is one of those huge extravagant homes built by the wealthy in the late 1800s. You can learn more about the home at <https://parks.ny.gov/historic-sites/25/details.aspx>.

Peebles Island Resource Center is the headquarters of the Bureau of Historic Sites, which is part of NYS Parks, Recreation and Historic Preservation. Established in 1972, the bureau provides technical support to New York's state-owned parks and historic sites. Located in a rehabilitated factory complex, the bureau helps to safeguard New York's rich heritage through a variety of projects and programs that document, preserve, and interpret historic, cultural, and natural resources at state parks and historic sites. Take a look at <https://parks.ny.gov/historic-preservation/bhs/> to learn more about Peebles Island.

If you are interested, please contact me and let me know what days you would be available. You don't need to commit for the entire time.

I am hopeful that we can help Peebles with this project and continue our long-standing relationship.
