EXHIBIT CHECKLIST - Use this checklist to prepare for the exhibit.

- Spread the word about the exhibit. Invite your family, friends, neighbors and co-workers. Pick up quarter-page exhibit flyers at a meeting and carry some with you. Be ready to strike up a conversation and share a flyer with anyone who might be interested. Drop flyers at your favorite store, coffee shop, doctor's office, etc.
The main exhibit will be on the ground floor of Pat's Barn. The Needlework Closet will be on the 2nd floor along with the demonstrations. There is an elevator available for those who can't use the stairs.
- Save-the-Date Details are up on our website. Have friends check it out at nycapega.org to find out more about us. We will not only have members' work on display but will also have ongoing needlework demonstrations and items for sale at our Needlework Closet.
- The Needlework Closet. Now's the time to donate any unused items in your stash. Bring them to Chapter meetings so Maggie will have time to organize and price them. Refer to the Donations Guidelines on our website to see what's acceptable.
- Gift/Opportunity Baskets. Please consider donating new kits, threads, patterns and finished embroidery pieces. Contact Sandie Feck.
- Finish Your Projects. With only three months of time left, keep on stitching your projects and remember you'll need time for finishing and framing. There'll be a finishing class at the Day Group meeting on March 19 (details on page 5).
- Volunteers Needed. Helen O'Connor will need hostesses for all three days. (Time slots: 10-12 pm, 12-2 pm and 2-4 pm). Or consider volunteering to help with set up, intake and clean up. Help will also be needed with the reception and Needlework Closet. (Details for volunteering jobs are on page 6.)
- Entry Forms. The registration deadline is Thursday, April 24. Online registration is preferred and you can find the link and more information on page 6. Registrar Mary Willmott would like everyone to include a one-line personal note about each submission, but it isn't a requirement.
- Plan to Attend the Reception. Thursday, May 15 from 3-5:00 pm. Lite refreshments.

- Sherry McCredie and Natalie Hart, Exhibit Co-Chairs

Letter from the President

Where does the time go? Nine months ago, with some apprehension I said yes, I accepted the nomination for president of the NYCDCEGA. Since then, I have developed a great appreciation for the breadth of stitching activities our Chapter offers and all the hard work behind it.

At a recent Board meeting, it was decided to form an ad hoc committee to envision the future of our Chapter. The committee's goal is to look at Chapter programming and membership. Members of the committee may reach out to you for your opinions and suggestions. Please share your thoughts and ideas. Your input is valuable to the future health and vitality of our Chapter.

One area of our Chapter that is quietly active is our community outreach. Sadly, the annual Stitching with Children program has been discontinued. On a positive note, in December we had a successful stitch in public at the Ten Broeck Mansion where member ornaments decorated the holiday tree. Thank you Terry Case for coordinating. Stitching on the replica sampler for NYS Office of Parks, Recreation and Historic Preservation is ongoing. I saw the sampler in December. Bravo to everyone with the patience to do such fine work. We discovered nearly two dozen Habitat for Humanity samplers in the Chapter stash and are seeking stitchers to add the personalization. Ann Cohan and I, with the help of everyone who loaned pieces, put together an exhibit at the Bethlehem Public Library for the month of February. Sherry McCredie is organizing several stitch in public events at shopping malls. This is a great way to let the public know we exist and to advertise the upcoming May exhibit.

Finally, the May exhibit. It has been SIX years since the last exhibit. Committee chairs have been hard at work preparing for the event. It will be all hands on deck during exhibit week and we need volunteers to help before, during and after the exhibit. (See page 6 for details on volunteer jobs.) Ladies, please say "Yes I can help" when the committee chair calls. Or better yet, reach out and offer to help. And remember to keep stitching and decide which of your works you would like to exhibit. It would be great if everyone had a least one item in the exhibit.

Happy Stitching,
Nancy Newkirk

Website Help Wanted

Have you checked out our website lately? You can see it here: <https://nycapega.org>.

I try to keep it as up to date as possible with all the latest Chapter news. I'm currently looking for someone who might be interested in assisting me with that task. It's an easy job — just making sure things are up to date and making any necessary changes. I use Word Press, which is very easy to learn if you're not familiar with it, and the Chapter has an IT person for tech support if we run into any difficulties.

Please email me if you're interested in helping.

PROGRAM NEWS

Finishing Class

Day Group Meeting
Wednesday, March 19
10 - 2 pm

Need help finishing that special project for the Exhibit? We are here to help you!

During the Day Group meeting on March 19, we will demonstrate techniques that you may find useful for getting your pieces ready for the exhibit. We'll show you how to mount pieces if you wish to do your own framing. There will also be a demo on how to make cording that can be used to embellish puff pillows and other smaller pieces. If you have a small piece that might be best displayed standing up, we'll show you how to do this as well. Finally, we'll show you how to create a puff pillow. In addition, feel free to bring any piece you plan to exhibit but are unsure how to finish. We will be glad to make suggestions.

Registration: There is no charge for this class but we do need to know how many members are interested. If you plan to attend, please send the coupon on page 9 to Louise Butler by March 14. (Note that the Day Group meeting will be going on at the same time as the finishing demos and we will have separate areas for both.)

OUTREACH PROGRAMS

Stitch in Public Events at Crossgates Mall

Sundays, March 2 & 30, 1 - 4 pm

In March, we're planning two stitch in public afternoons at Crossgates Mall to share our passion with the public and publicize the upcoming Exhibit at the same time. There will be a table where up to four of us can sit and stitch and share our love of stitching with whomever stops by. We just need to be friendly and answer questions. We'll also have Exhibit flyers available to share.

If you're interested, reach out to Sherry McCredie, Exhibit Chair, to let her know you're available and which day is best for you.

America's Tapestry: An Update

Excellent news! The preliminary design for the New York panel is done. It features the Birch Trials held at the Fraunces Tavern in NYC, where Black loyalists made their case for freedom in Canada in return for their service to the British Crown. Jenni Paperman will be sending out an announcement sometime in March to discuss the final design, including the colors and stitches to use. And then she will be looking for volunteers to stitch the panel at the Van Schaick Mansion in Cohoes. Reach out to Jenni Paperman to be part of this historic effort.

Denise Chonski Recognized

Long-time Chapter member Denise Chonski was recently recognized for 40 years of teaching art in Catholic Schools. In addition to teaching, Denise leads the Catholic Schools Week Art Exhibit, an annual display of artwork by Catholic school students of all ages. Art and creativity have always been a part of Denise's life. "I can't remember a time I wasn't doing something art-related or craft-related," she said.

To learn more about Denise's teaching career, read the recent article in The Evangelist at <https://evangelist.org/news/2025/jan/29/a-creative-classroom/>.

2025 ARTISTRY IN STITCHES EXHIBIT

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

Help with the Heavy Lifting

In addition to the many, many tasks involved with putting on an exhibit, there is also some actual heavy lifting! We are looking for some strong arms and backs to help set up the display racks on Tuesday, May 13 and take them down on Monday, May 19.

We will also need extra hands to assist with arranging the hundreds of needlework pieces we are expecting. That will be done over three days: Tuesday, May 13 – Thursday, May 15.

If you would like to lend a hand or know someone who would, please contact Agnes Bohl.

— Agnes Bohl & Verna Chapman, Display Co-chairs

Intake and Pickup

On Tuesday, May 13 we'll need one person to help log in the pieces and two or three folks to bring the pieces to the display staging area. On Monday, May 19 we'll need five volunteers to escort members to pick up their pieces. To volunteer to help out, contact Terry Case.

— Terry Case, Receiving Chair

Hostessing at Exhibit

Please consider signing up to be a hostess at the Artistry in Stitches exhibit. We will need lots of help to cover all the shifts for the three days the exhibit is open. It's a fun job in which you'll see our work appreciated and have an opportunity to talk with visitors.

There are three shifts each day: 10-12pm, 12-2pm and 2-4pm. Sign-up Sheets will be available at the March and April meetings. Or contact Helen O'Connor directly.

— Helen O'Connor, Hostess & Demo Chair

Gift Baskets

We need your help in creating gift baskets to be offered at our exhibit next May. Please consider donating any new kits, threads, patterns, etc. that you have in your stash that you've decided you probably won't be using after all. If you have anything that you think we can use, please contact Sandie Feck.

— Sandie Feck, Opportunity Baskets

Exhibit Registration at a Glance

Full instructions for registering your exhibit entries will be sent out via email or postal mail.

General Info

- ✘ Each member can enter up to 10 pieces.
- ✘ When in doubt, register it! It is ok if you are unable to exhibit a piece you registered but you will NOT be able to add pieces after the registration deadline.
- ✘ The registration form asks for the costs of supplies and finishing and the number of stitching hours. This information is needed for the exhibit insurance that National provides. Rough estimates of time and money spent are sufficient.
- ✘ While we will not encourage photographs, we will not stop attendees from taking pictures. If you have a piece you don't want to be photographed, please don't enter it.

Registration Forms

Registration forms for this year's exhibit will be available in several formats:

- ✘ Online registration forms are at <https://docs.google.com/forms/d/1MYaQb8upRkYKvPIX9mRYNF24g-M4ZvBxMszltimDmMw>. This is the preferred method and was used for the 2019 exhibit. Members found it very user-friendly and it streamlined the process for the registrar.
- ✘ Downloadable forms (Excel and PDF) are available in the Members Only section of our website at www.nycapega.org. The printable PDF form may also be used as a worksheet to prepare for on-line registration.
- ✘ Printed copies will be available at the March and April group meetings.

Entry Fee

There is no entry fee for members entering display items in the Artistry for Stitches exhibit for the first time. For all others, the entry fee is $5 per person and should be mailed to Mary Willmott at the address below.

Registration Deadline is Thursday, April 24

If you do not use the online registration, you should send your forms to Mary Willmott via email or postal mail.

— Mary Willmott, Registrar

2025 ARTISTRY IN STITCHES EXHIBIT

Needlework Closet Donations

Donations of new or gently used needlework-related items are now being accepted for sale at our Artistry in Stitches exhibit in May. Funds raised at the Needlework Closet help our Chapter offer special events like workshops with national teachers.

You may give your donations to me or to Terry Case at Beverwyck meetings, to Fran Roscello at Day Group, to Doris Halvorsen at North End, or to any study group leader.

We have a Donations Guidelines page on our website, and I encourage you to consult that list while going through your stash. Here are a few other helpful guidelines:

- ✗ Place kits, with directions, fabric and threads, into a closed plastic bag. Label it “Complete kit” if original kit supplies are included; “Stitching started”; or note if anything is missing (for example, “Missing fabric,” “Missing metallic threads”). Kits that have never been opened do not need a label.
- ✗ Place stitching fabric in a plastic bag and identify size of piece, thread count, and type of fabric, if known.
- ✗ If more than one skein of yarn, package together and identify type if there is no label.
- ✗ Roll quilting fabrics (except for fat quarters) and wrap a paper band around the roll. Write type of fabric and measurements on the band (100% cotton, 45" w. 2 1/3 yards).

Magazine donations should be limited to titles we are most likely to sell. Please ask about other interesting needlework magazines that are not on this list:

- | | |

| Inspirations | EGA UK Embroidery Magazine |
| Just Cross Stitch | EGA UK Stitch Magazine |

Reception

Thursday, May 15, 3-5:00 pm

The Reception will be held on the evening before the exhibit opens to the general public. Chapter members and their guests will be able to enjoy the exhibit and some light refreshments (fruit, cookies, coffee and tea). The Needlework Closet will also be open so that members will have the first chance to shop.

2025 June Retreat at Ararat Center

The 2025 June Retreat will be held June 6 – 8 at the Ararat Center in Greenville, a short drive south of Delmar. Our retreats follow a simple formula of stitch, chat, eat, and repeat. It's a luxury to stitch all day as you visit with friends, breaking only to enjoy delicious meals. If you need some fresh air you can hop outside and take a walk on the grounds. Or enjoy the beautiful view of the Catskills from the huge windows of the stitching room.

Our stitching room has incredible daylight, with huge windows on both sides of the very large room. We'll sit at our tables in one part of this space, and when the breakfast, lunch or dinner bell rings, we just get up and move to a different part of the room. The food is always extraordinary, and we are able to accommodate anyone with special dietary requests.

Dates: The retreat dates are Friday, June 6 through Sunday, June 9.

Location: Ararat Center in Greenville, NY, just off Route 32, 18 miles south of Delmar.

Meals: Meals start with dinner on Friday. Snacks will be served every evening. Coffee, tea, hot chocolate, juices and water are included and available throughout the day, often with fresh fruit. Breakfast and lunch are served on Sunday and the retreat will end at 3:00 pm Sunday.

Costs: The retreat costs include all meals and meal gratuities. Housekeeping gratuities are up to the individual participant.

- $306 for a single; $246 for a double; and $222 for a triple.

In order to hold this event, we must have full payment from 12 members by April 9. So please don't delay and send in the registration coupon on page 9 with your payment.

Registration for day trippers will open once we meet the minimum number of weekend attendees. At that point, I will send out an email with meal costs and other details.

Contact me if you have questions or concerns. I look forward to another fabulous retreat weekend with many of you.

– Helen O'Connor, June Retreat Coordinator

Chapter Dues Decreasing as of 3/1/25

At the February Board Meeting, the Chapter Board voted to reduce the Chapter dues from $17 to $11. That means, when you next renew your EGA membership (likely in May), you will be paying $70: $55 to EGA National + $4 to EGA Metropolitan Region + $11 to our Chapter. If you have any questions about this, feel free to contact the Chapter Treasurer, Jenni Paperman or any other Board member.
